EVENTS

Always and Forever

Homecoming '78 will be one to remember. The festivities began on the 7th of October with the naming of ten candidates. Who could forget the series of assemblies with Dave Casey and his purple toga, Serafino Ziccarelli as John Travolta, and the grand appearance of the Beatles. The week continued and Lisa Molinaro was announced queen, along with runners-up Maureen Chiapetto and Diane DeCono. On October 14 the Lancers defeated Dominican 14-0. That evening the guests walked in from the cold to warm-up with the music by Orphan.

The Miser

The third annual non-musical production was presented, under the direction of Mr. Ken Miller, on December 9 and 10. New talents and old veterans teamed together to convey the essence of Moliere's 17th century antics to their audience. The costume department, headed by Mrs. Carol Steilien, was able to add color to the characters through the styles of the 1800's of hoop skirts and fedoras. The long hours and hard work of all those involved enables St. Joe's to be proud of another fine production.

A Time for Change

Celebrated on September 22, Ring Day initiated a memorable time for the class of 1980. A Time For Change represented the theme for this day. Mass was held in the lobby with Father Spitz presiding over it, and Sister Pat distributed the blessed rings and personally congratulated everyone.

After the mass, there were refreshments in the cafeteria, during which rings were turned eighty times for good luck. The rest of the day juniors celebrated by having a party at Petrified Springs.

Senior Retreat

By 8:00 a.m. the suitcases in the lobby resembled a mountain. The seniors were anxiously awaiting to hear what bus they would be on and which retreat house they would be going to. After the suspense seemed to be over, it had actually just begun. The toilet papering, full moons, and movie filming added more suspense than they had imagined. Retreat also had its serious moments which included discussions, letters from home, and time for reflecting. In all, November 8, 9, and 10, were as exciting as they were exhausting.

Man of La Mancha

The Possible Dream

They said it couldn't be done, that it was an impossible dream. But the dream of "Don Quixote" did come true on opening night. It took over 100 hours to build the monstrous set which consisted of 8 — eight foot platforms and one drawbridge-type staircase. It was a cast and crew community effort all the way, and they put everything in it to make it their best.

N.H.S. Welcomes New Members

On May 7th, St. Joe's had its annual N.H.S. Induction. There were 54 new members who joined the society and wore the traditional gowns. Speakers were: Bill Hammond, President; Maureen Chiappetta, Vice President; Carol Brownlee, Secretary; and Brenda Jantzen, Treasurer. For a student to get into N.H.S., they have to have at least a 3.5 G.P. record (3.0 for newly inducted seniors.) Also, they must be determined to have high character, leadership, and be of service to the community and school.

CLASSES

Personal — Advice — Contact — Encouragement

Pace has had several changes this year. Instead of meeting on every Tuesday, they now meet on Wednesday. This year the mornings are started with ten minutes of pace during which announcements are made and any necessary business is taken care of. Sharing, discussing, studying, and parties are common to most of the pace groups. Many major fund-raising drives were also coordinated through pace.

▲3

▼4

1. Frank Vignieri, Scott Seidl, Dave Arneson, and John Koker enjoy a pace party.
2. Vernon Anderson enjoys talking to a friend during pace.
3. Scott Young, Mercy Cruz, Don Thomas, Sharon Kruk, and Antoinette Young get into the spirit of togetherness in pace.
4. Chuck Portilia tells a joke to liven-up his pace.

Religion

The main objective of the Religion courses this year was to give the students an awareness of the presence of God and help them respond to it. In Marriage in the Family, students were taught basic knowledge for everyday living.

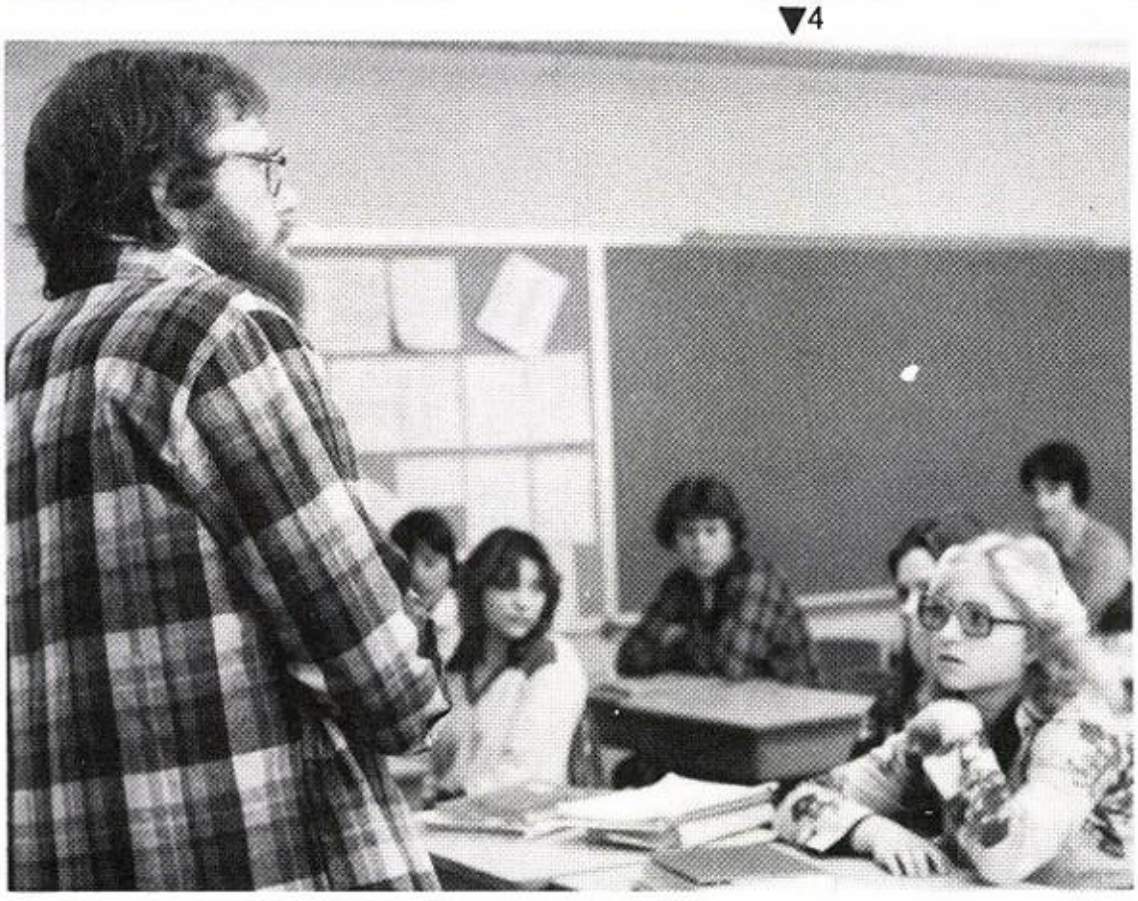
▶2

▶3

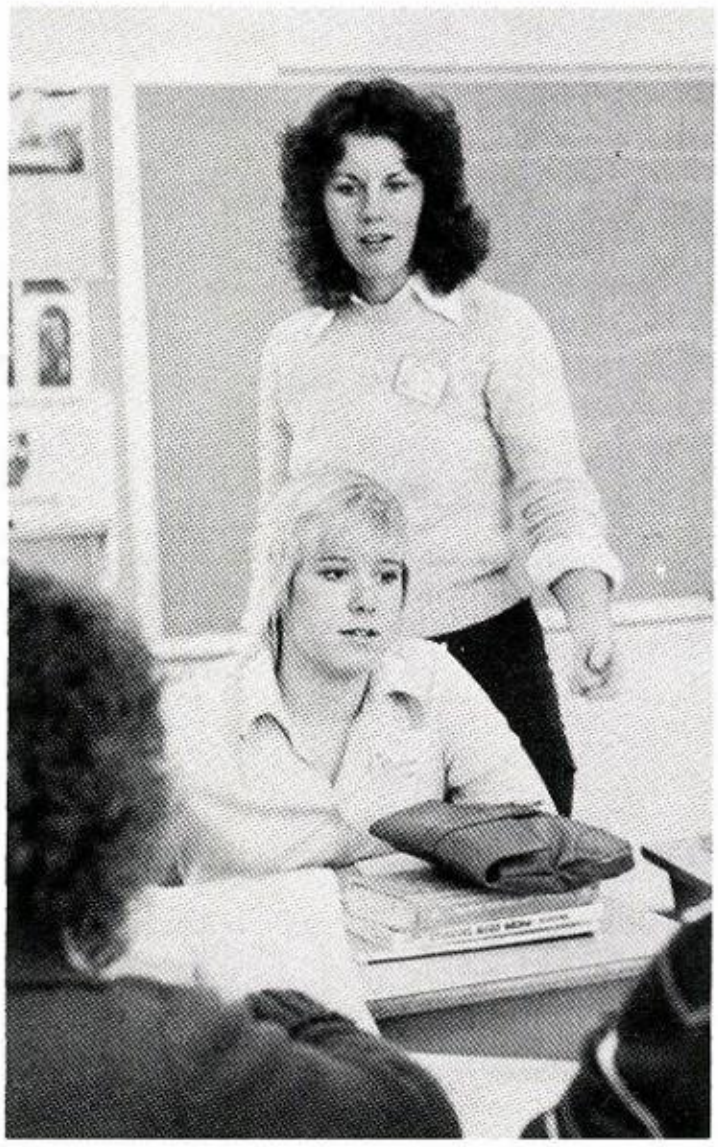
▼4

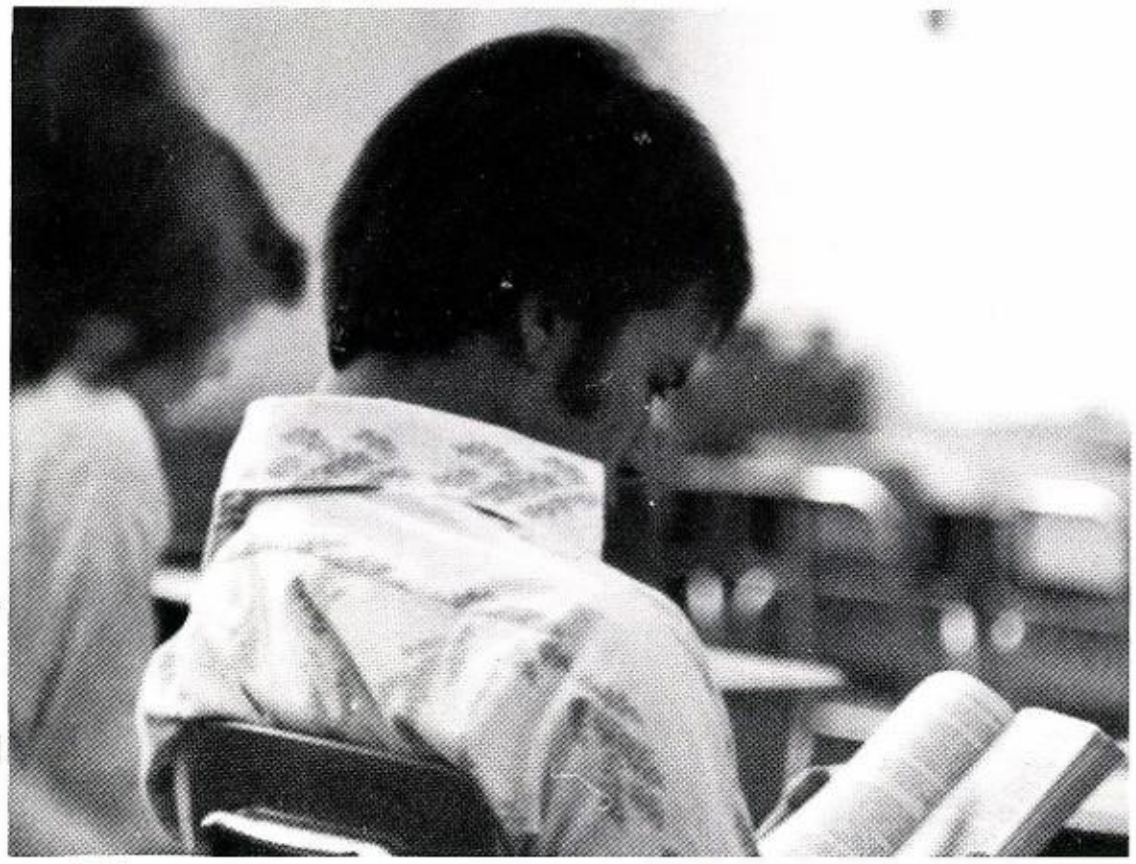


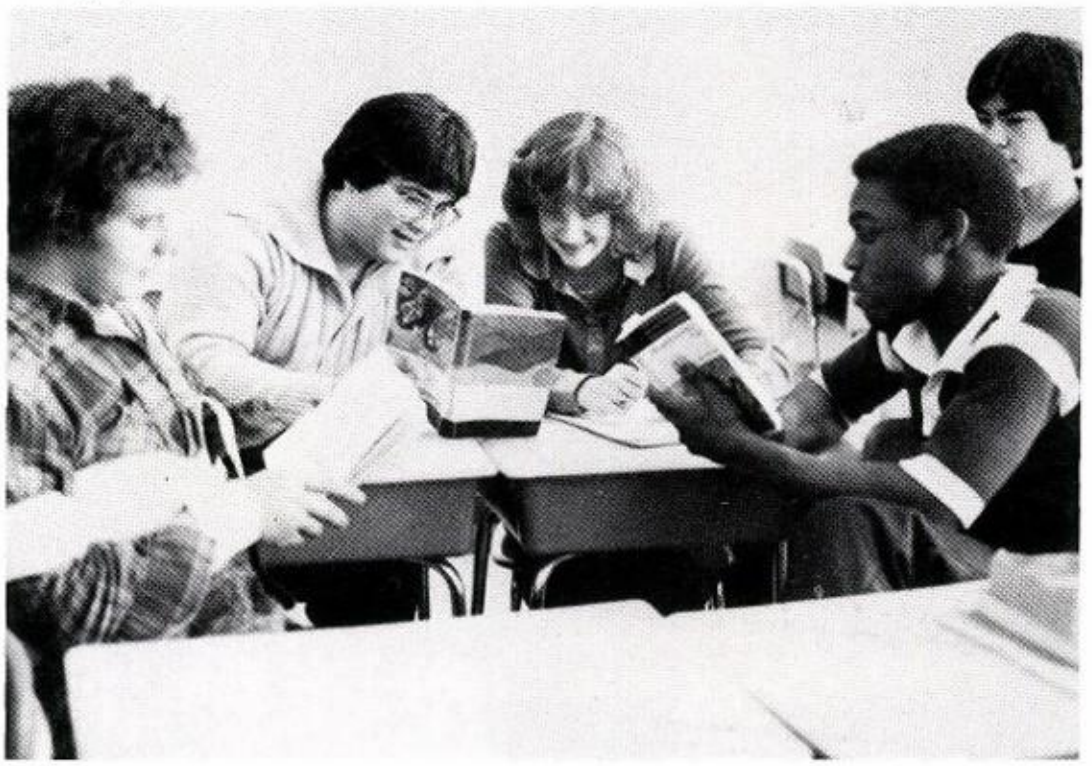
1. Sue Schroeder reads an article for marriage in the family.
2. Father Lazarski draws a diagram on the board to illustrate what he has just taught.
3. Jane Annessi discusses an assignment with her classmates.
4. Pam Pfleger listens attentively to Mr. Heinisch.

English Takes Many Approaches

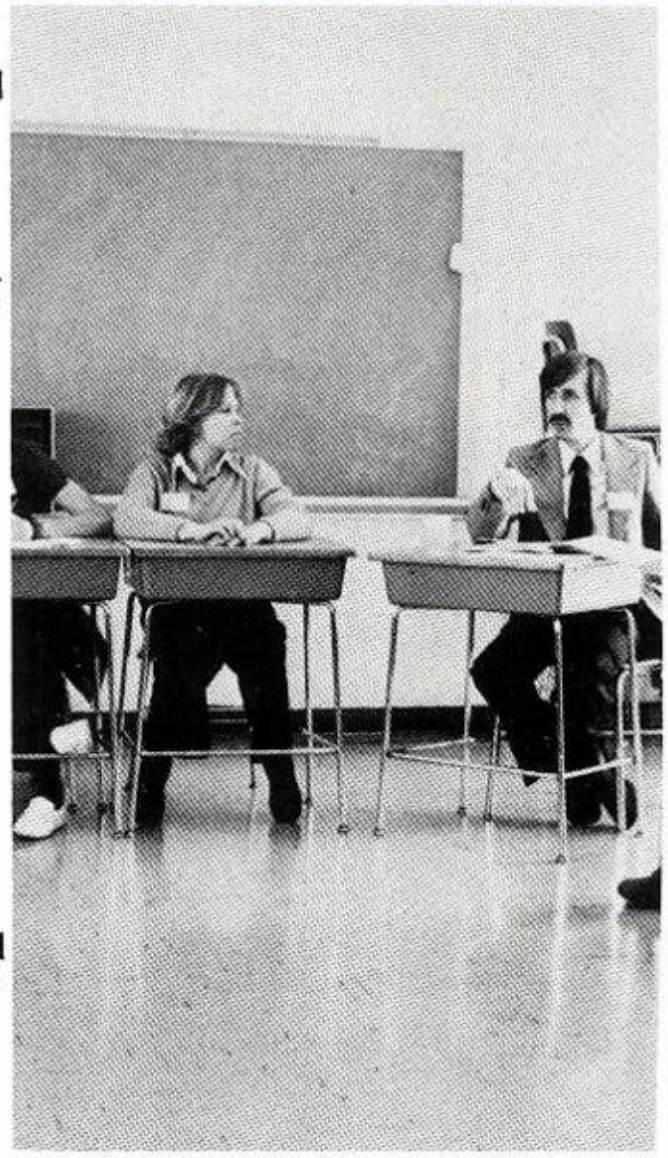
English is the largest department and attracts many students. It develops many talents through mass media, speech, acting, journalism, poetry, and term papers.







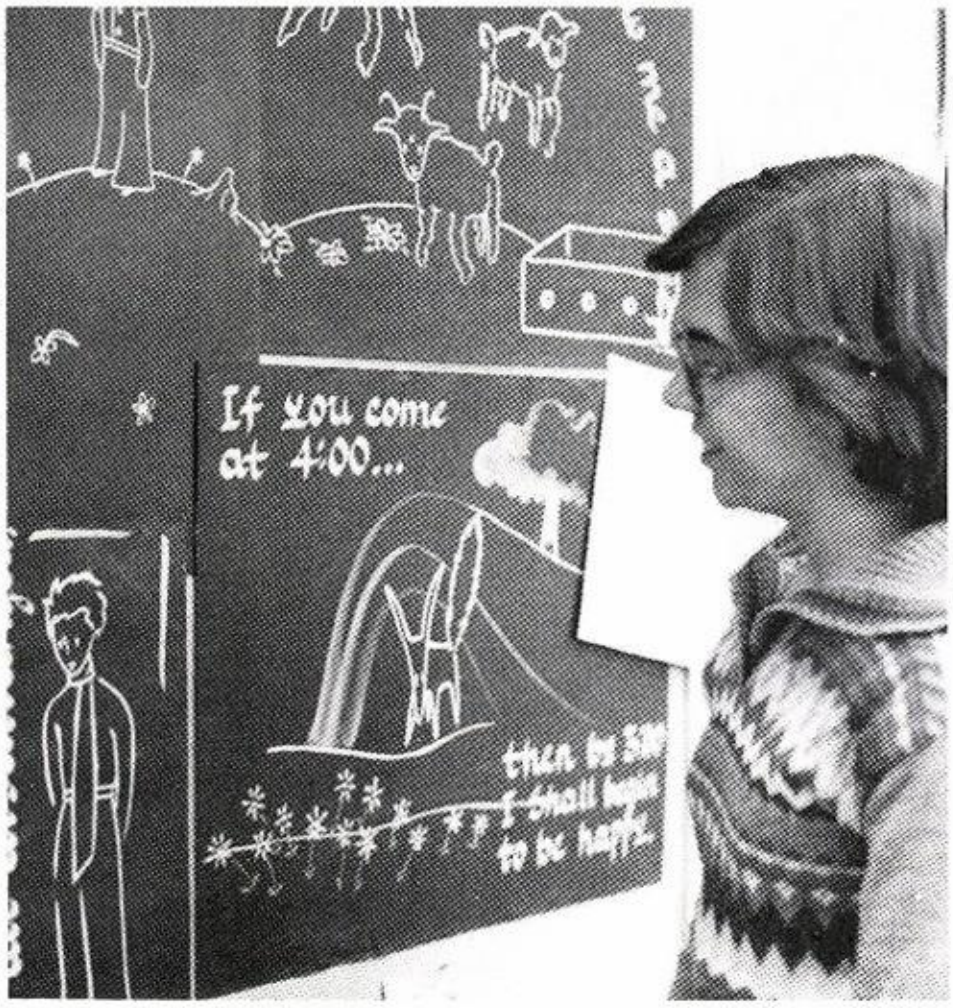
1. Ray Blaxill takes time out for reading.
2. Mrs. Jennette helps out Mr. Miller by student teaching.
3. Mr. Powers talks over a problem with the newspaper with Mercy Cruz.
4. Students work together on their assignment.

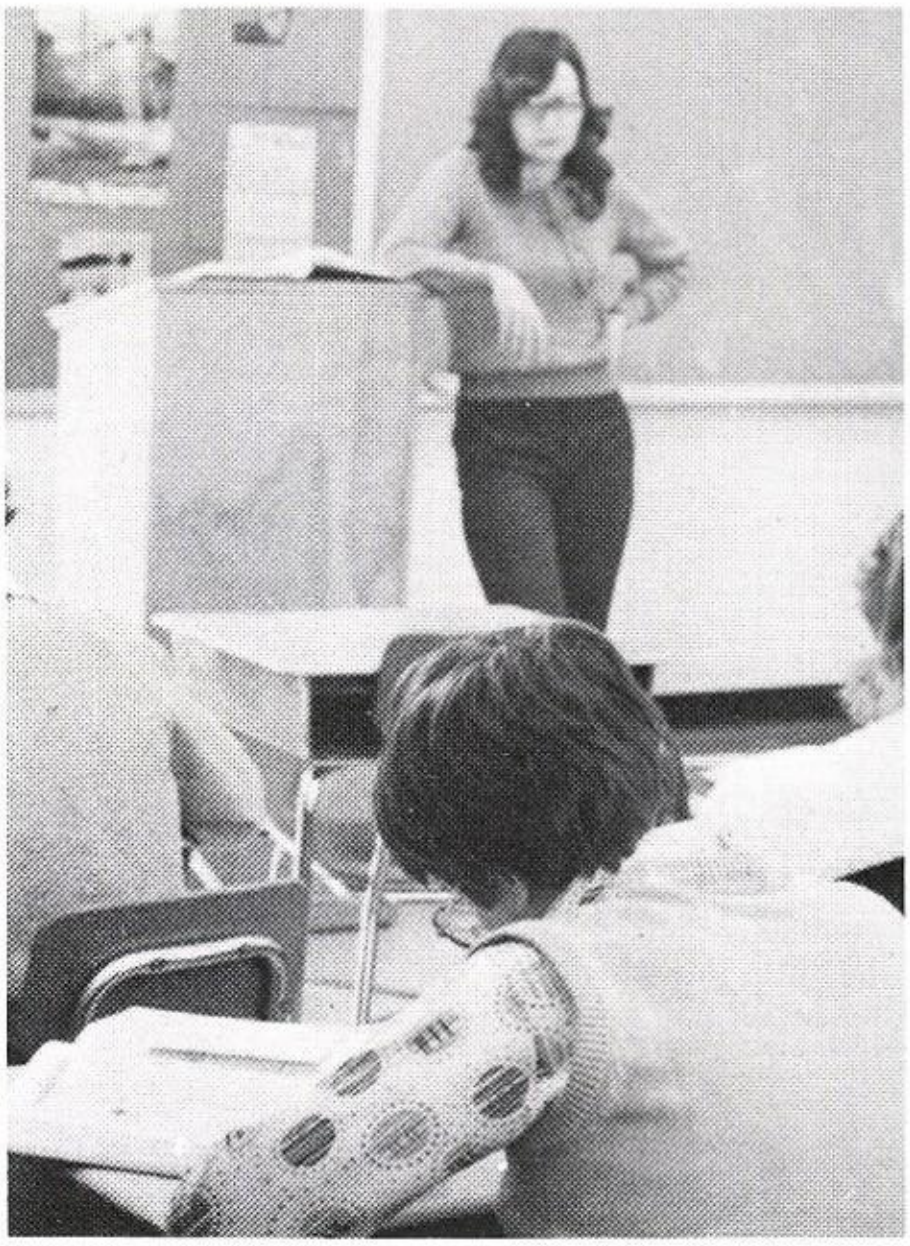


1. Marsha and Kelly studying together.
2. The class listens intently to Mr. Miller.
3. The acting class poses for a picture.
4. Scott Antony getting help from Mr. Marx.
5. Anne Stuber and Dora Reyna prepare the final copy for the paper.

Foreign Language

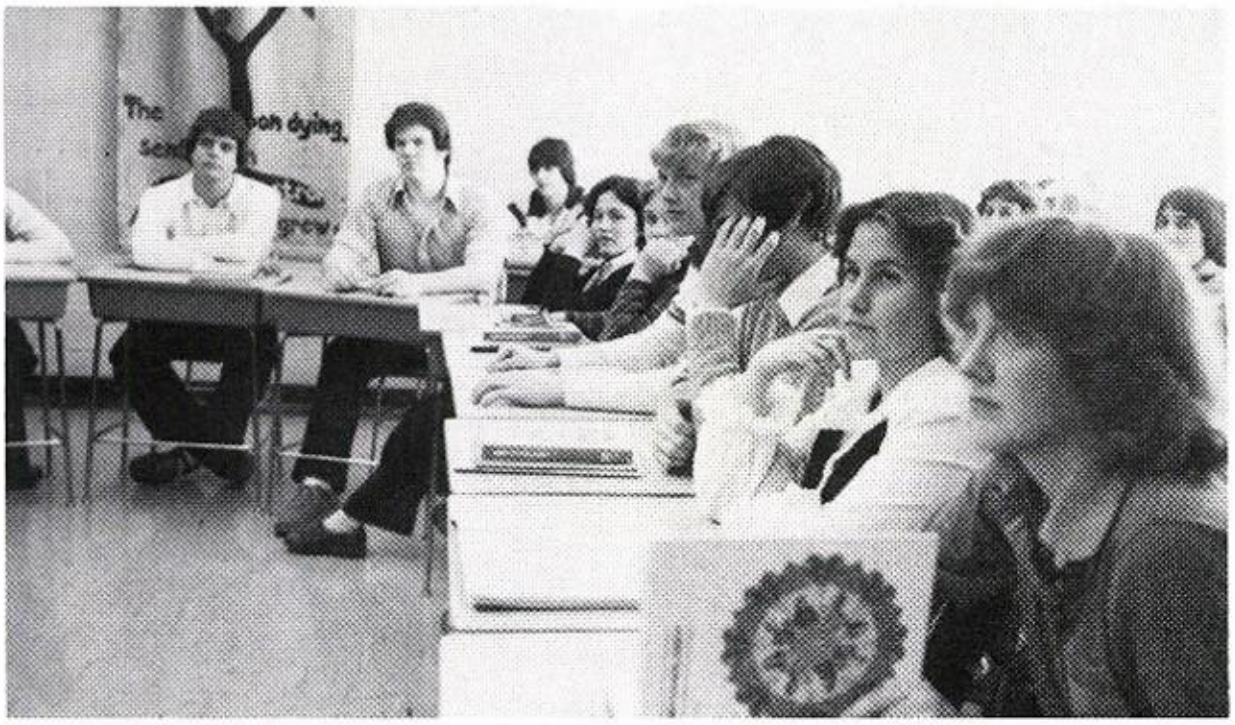
French, German, and Spanish are the three foreign languages offered at St. Joe's. Students not only learn proper grammatical usage but also learn the customs and traditions of the countries through dialogues, slides and tape presentations.





1. Mrs. Holt supervises the studying of her students.
2. Nancy Hamilton looks over the posters in French class of "The Little Prince."
3. Sr. Virginia helps a German student with an assignment.

Social Studies



Sociology & Social Problems students focused on the elements of society. In economics, students simulated many of today's economics problems and tried to find solutions to them. Many of the economic students participated in a statewide economics contest. The group of Kathy Hanlon, Tom Werner, Ralph Turner, Peter Turk, Jim Kotz, and Don Thomas won first place. The history classes often used role-playing to make history come alive.

▲1

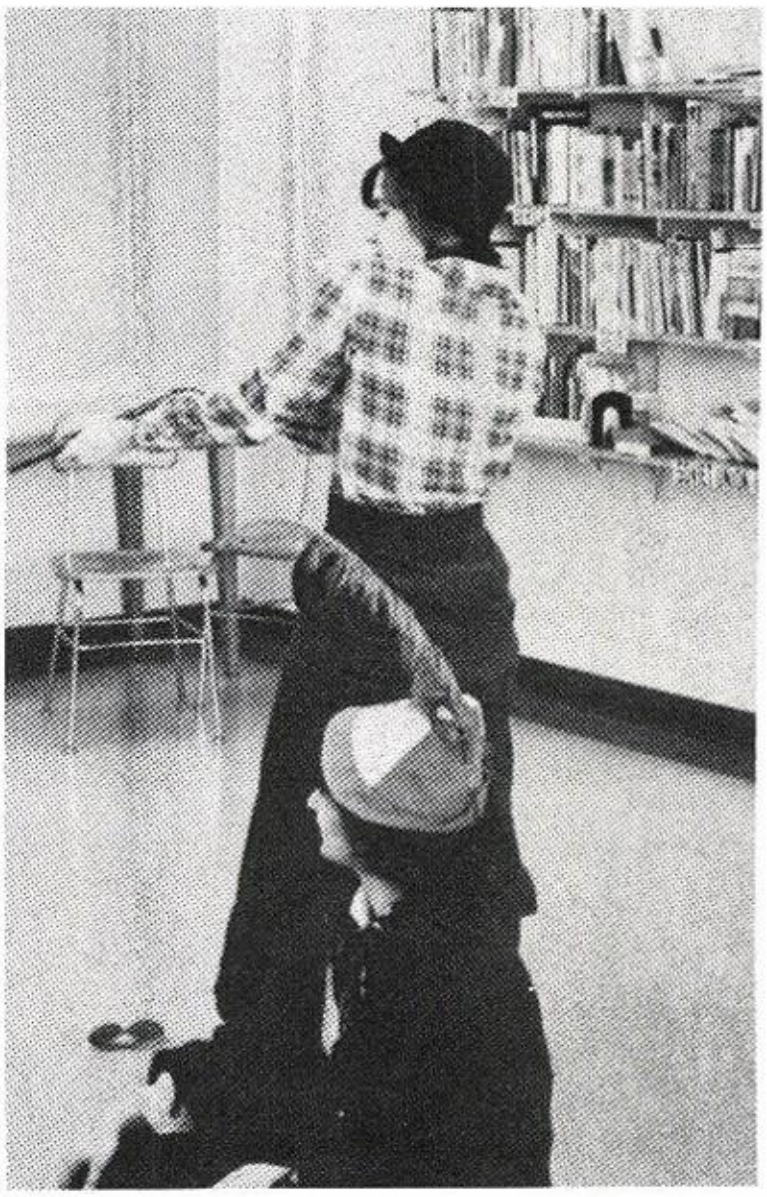
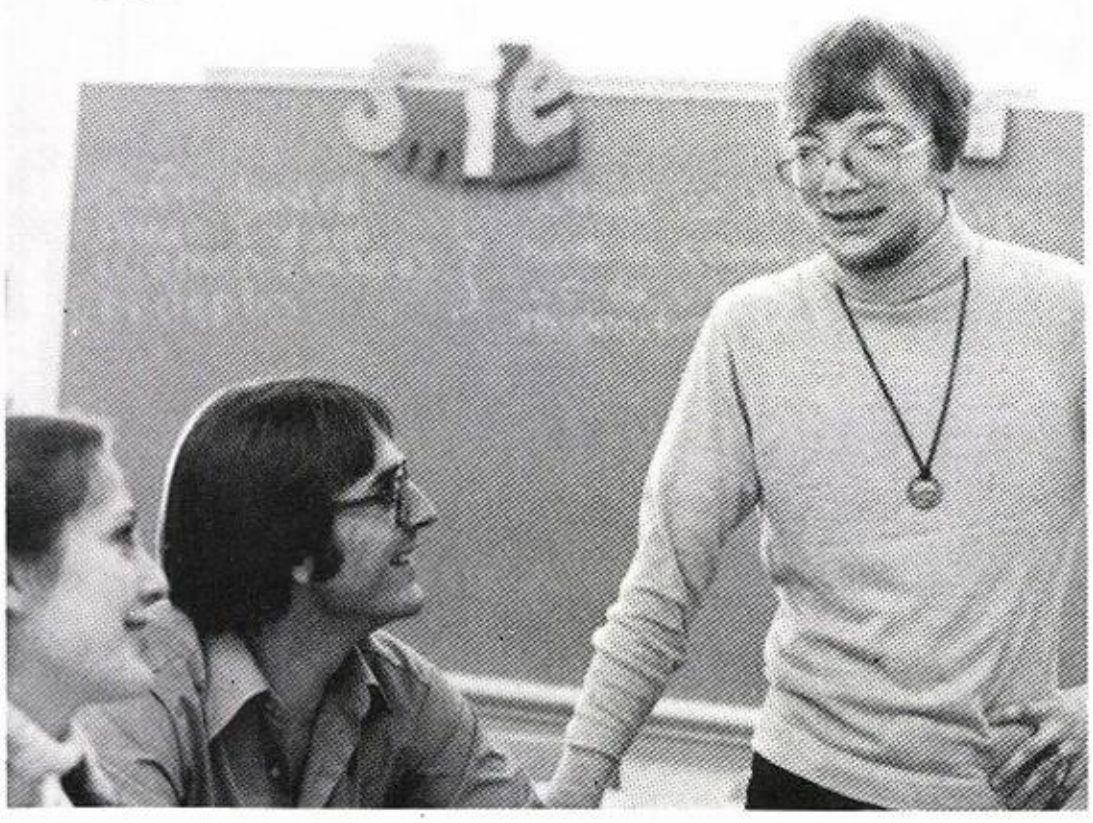
▲3



▼4

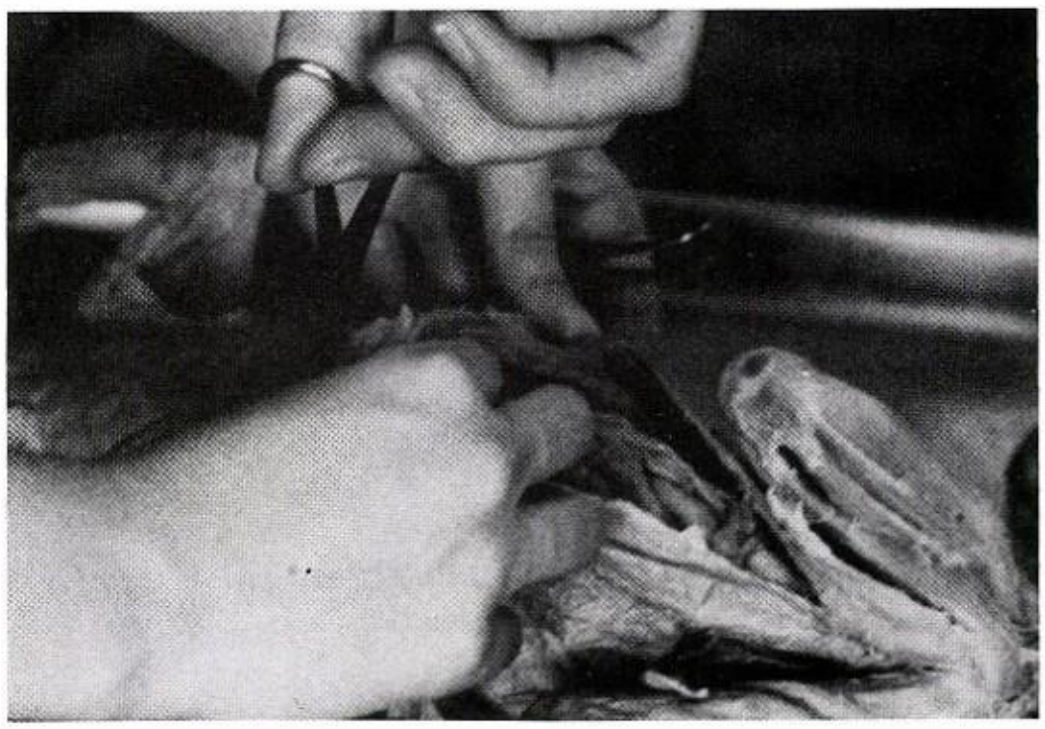


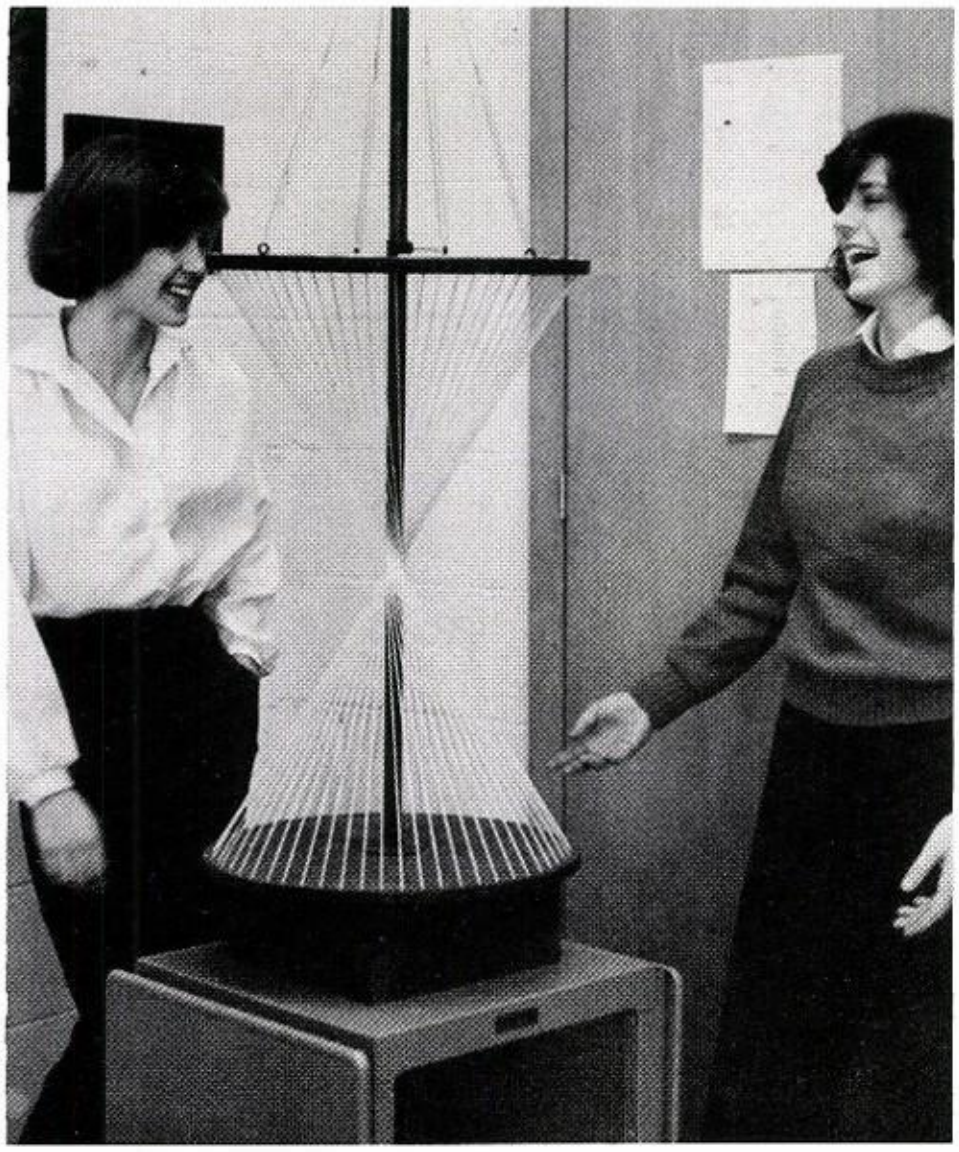
1. Psychology students listen intently to Sister Virginia.
2. Mr. Andacht enthusiastically instructs the class.
3. Nancy Hamilton acts out the problems of the pioneers.
4. Paul Moeller and Rhonda Gerolmo get help from Mr. Heuttner.

Science

No major course changes took place in the science department this year as offerings remain general science, biology, chemistry, physics, and anatomy. Lab work and experiments were common to all of them as students learned and used the scientific method. Activities ranged from dissecting fetal pigs, cats, and worms to exercising in order to test the heart and pulse rate.

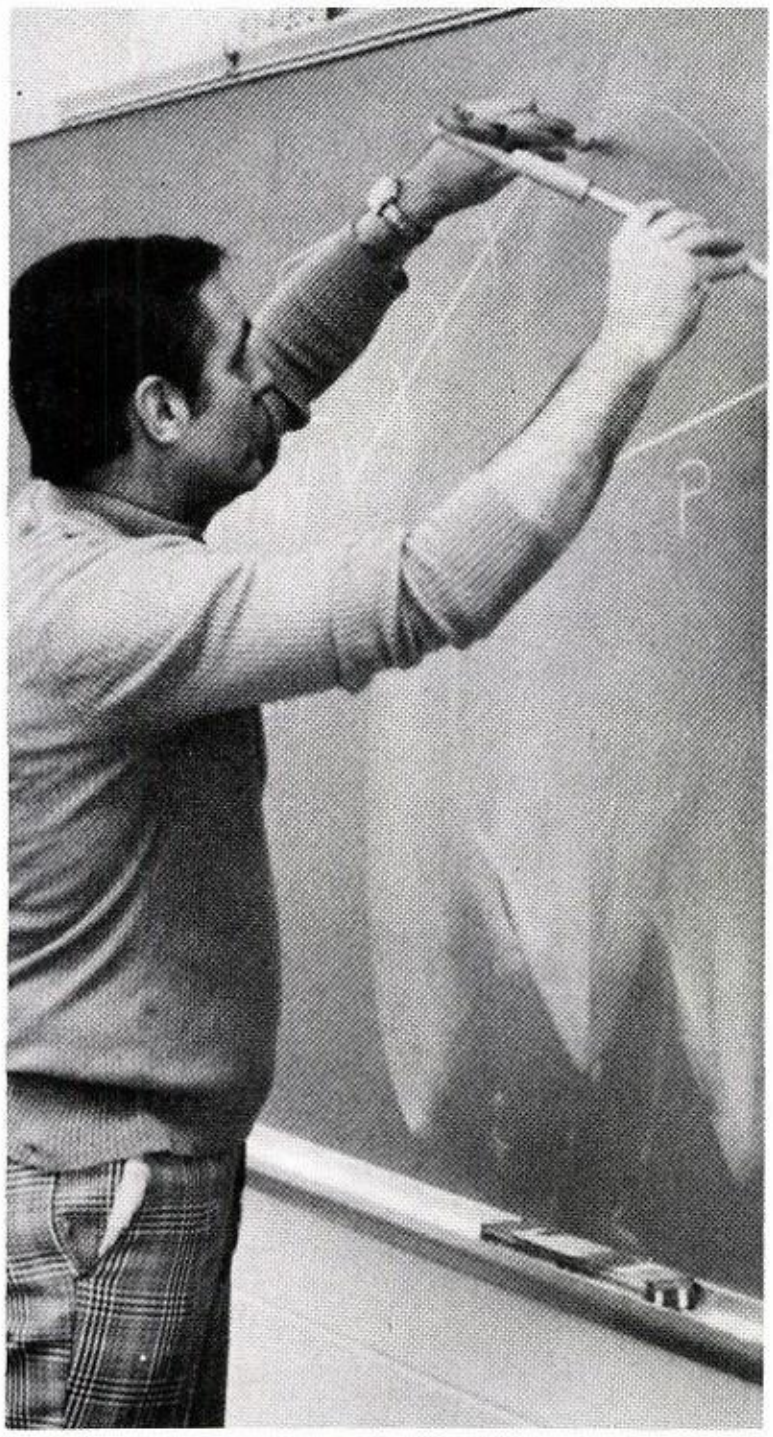
1. A student works intently on the dissection of a frog.
2. Eva Vigneiri uses her hands carefully to measure the weights accordingly.
3. Physics students demonstrate some of the basic concepts.
4. Dissecting a cat takes a steady hand and a careful eye.





Mathematics

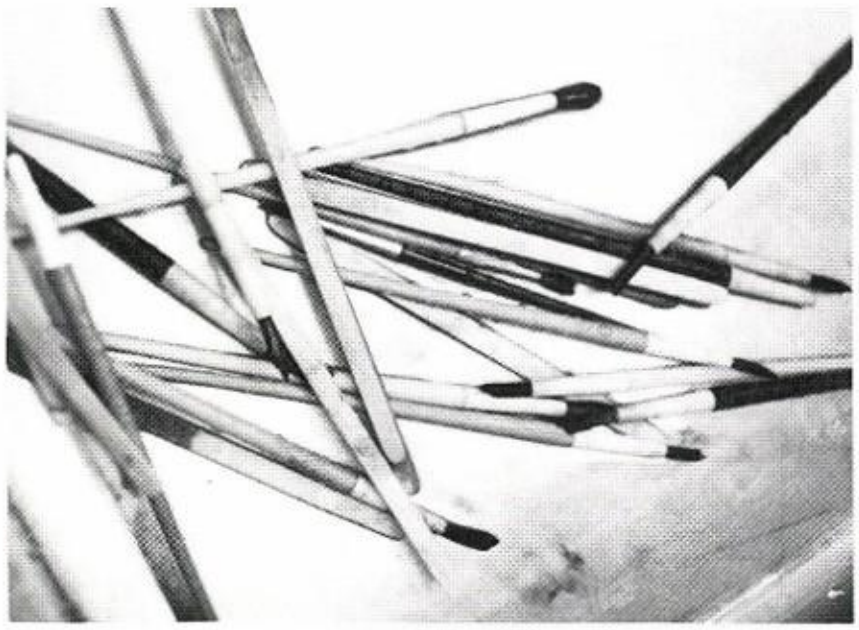
Courses such as math topics, geometry, algebra/ trig and others, provide students with suitable knowledge for college or everyday use. The math resource center allows students the perfect atmosphere in which to study math.



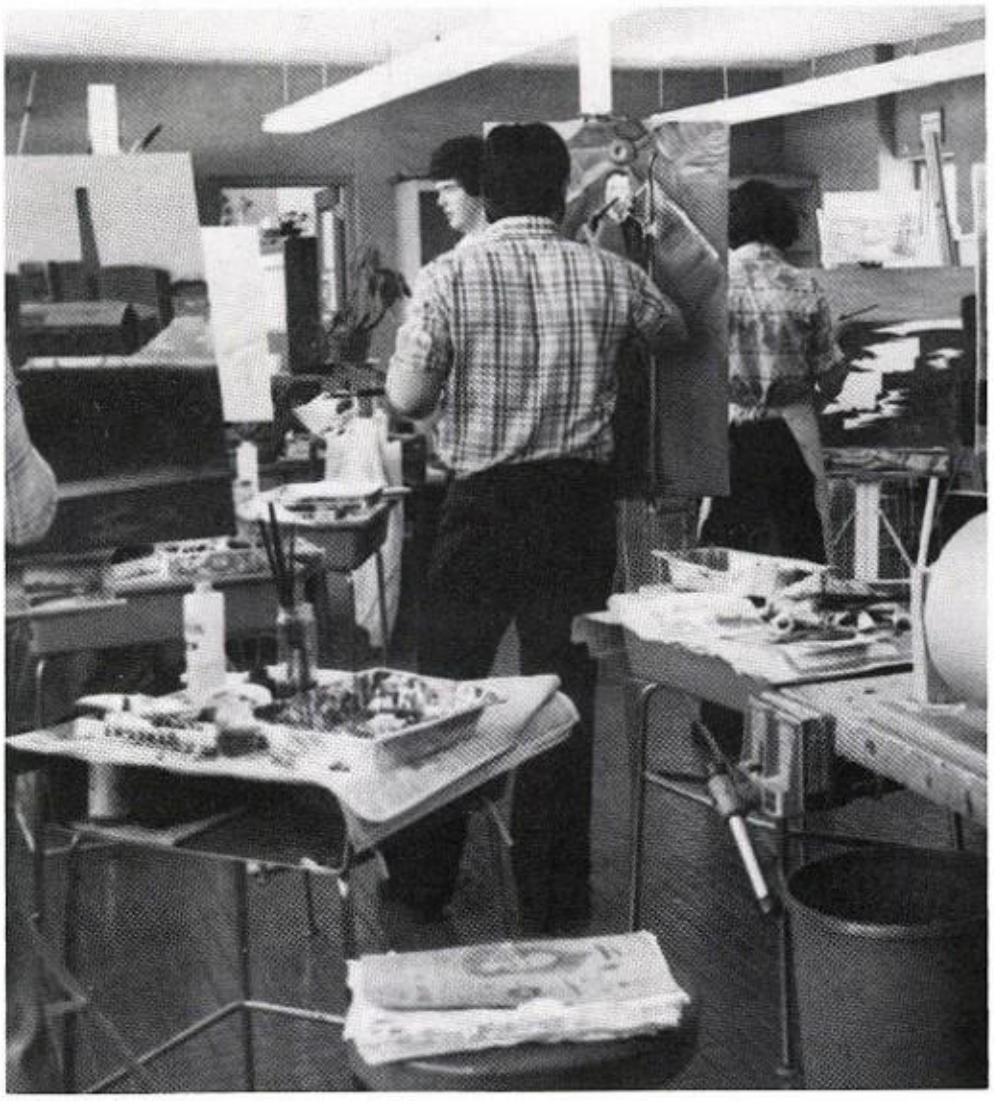
1. Sue and Eva smile prettily for the camera.
2. Mr. Tiber demonstrates how to make an equilateral triangle.
3. Sister Cecilia checks over the work Tim Brumm has done.

Art

From basic art to studio, the art department at St. Joe's has captured many excellent artists. From oil painting to scenery for the play, the art department progresses.



1



2

3

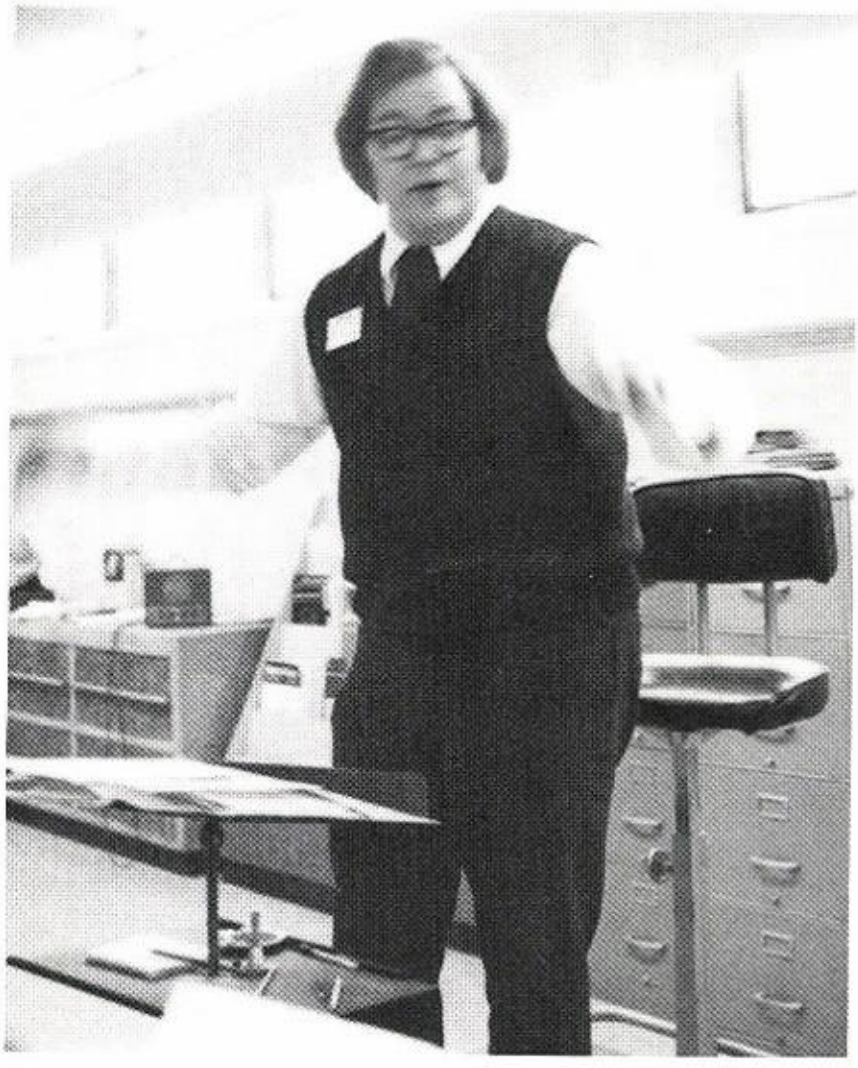
4

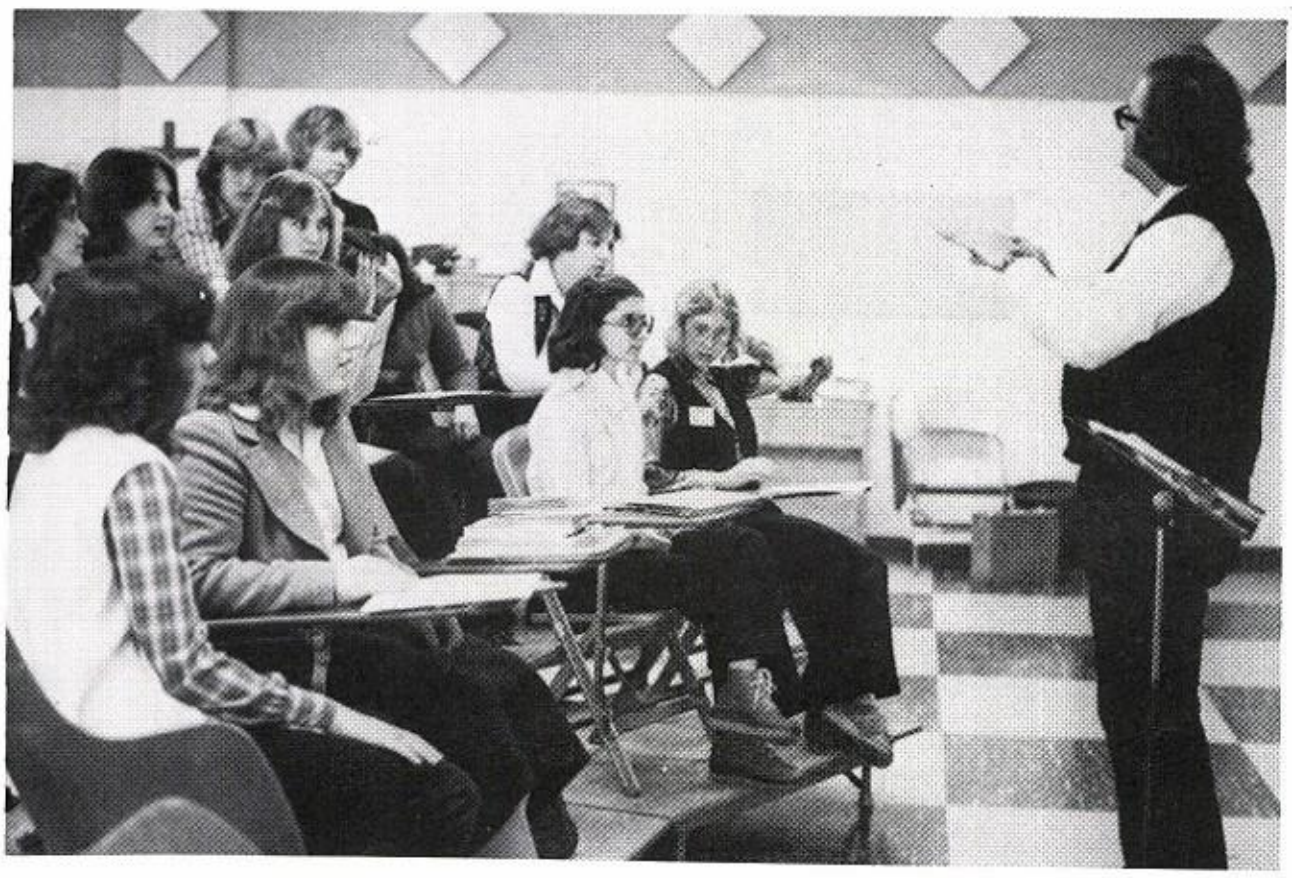
▼5

1. Students' art brushes are ready for clean up.
2. Seniors work on their projects in studio.
3. Kathy admires Ann's painting.
4. Sister Honora offering advice to James and Lynn.
5. Students work on scenery for the play.

Music

Singing in liturgies and performing in variety shows are just a part of all the activities the music department is involved in. Music and band departments involve a lot of talent from our school and it shows through their performances.





1. Swing choir goes over music for mass.
2. Band shows its not-so-serious side.
3. Mr. Hoffman directs the tempo of the song.
4. Choir listens attentively to Mr. Hoffman.

Business Education

The business department provides skills for those who plan to further their education in business and to gain skills for everyday living. The courses included are Accounting, Shorthand, Business Law, Typing, and Secretarial Practice.

▲1

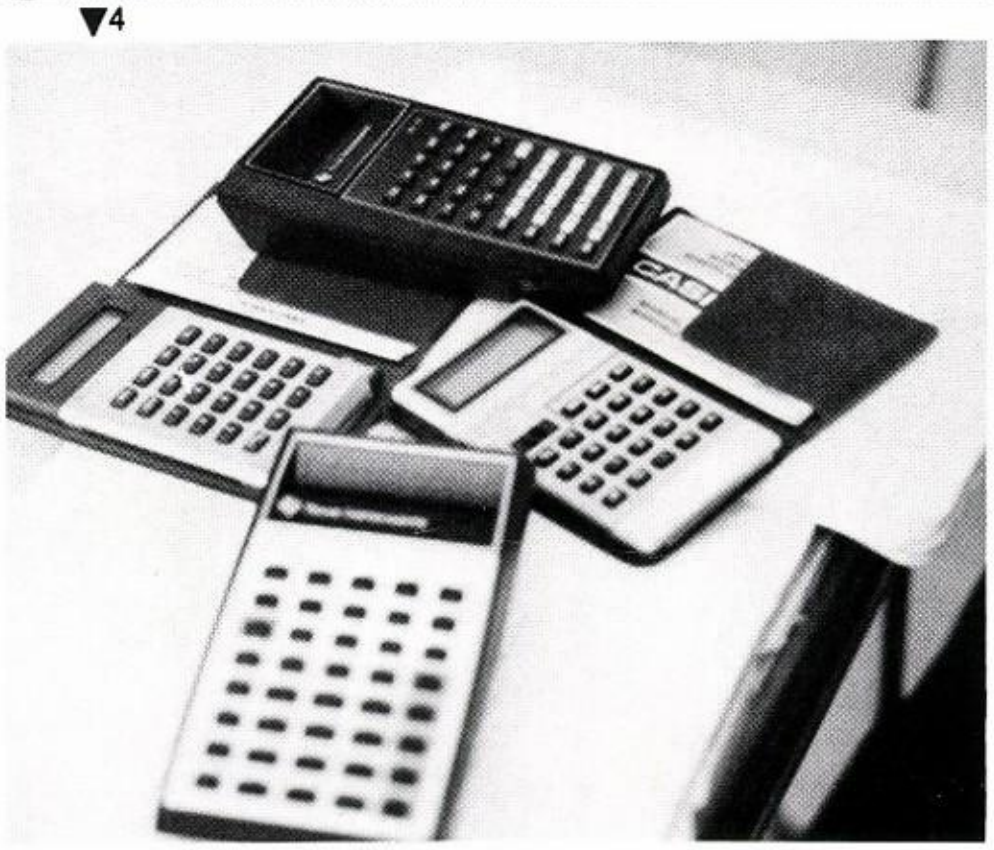
▲3

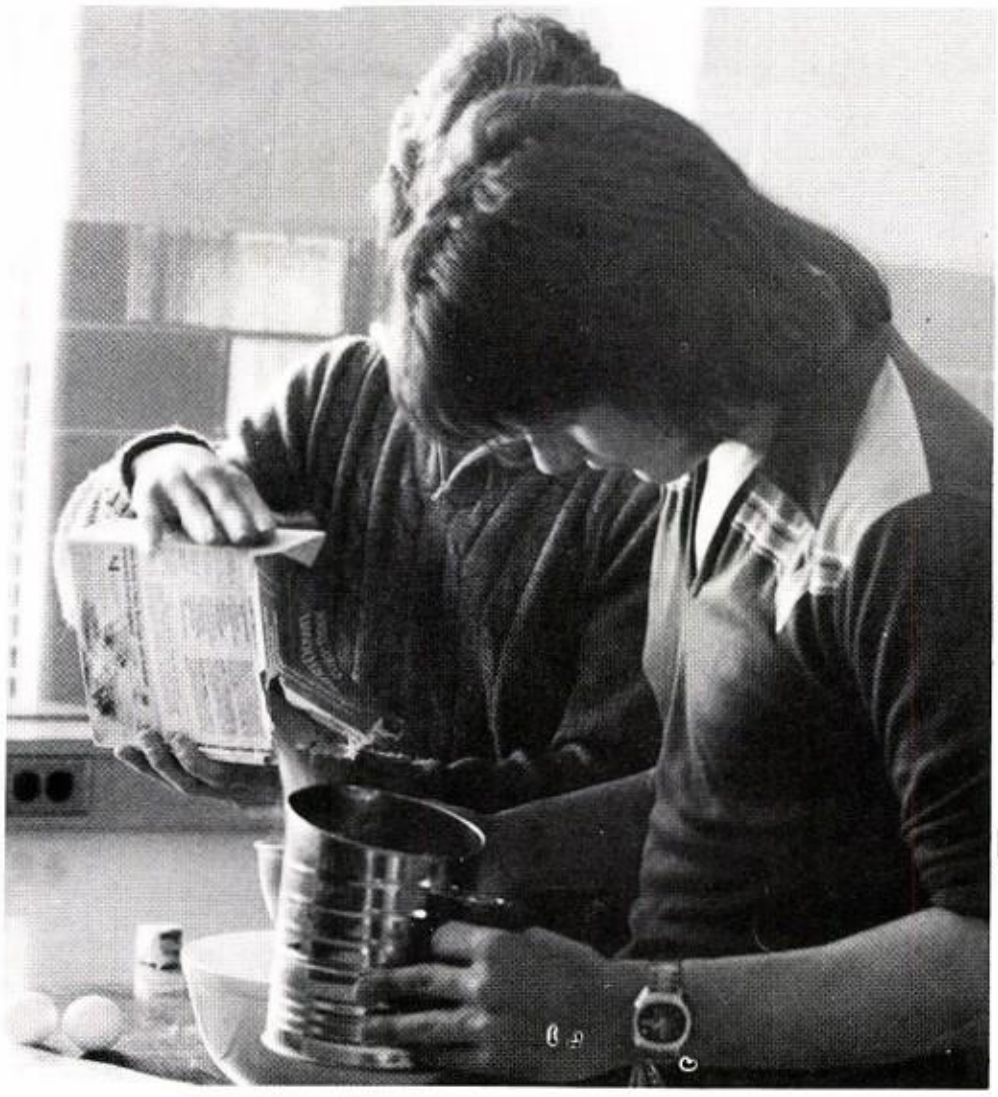
▼4

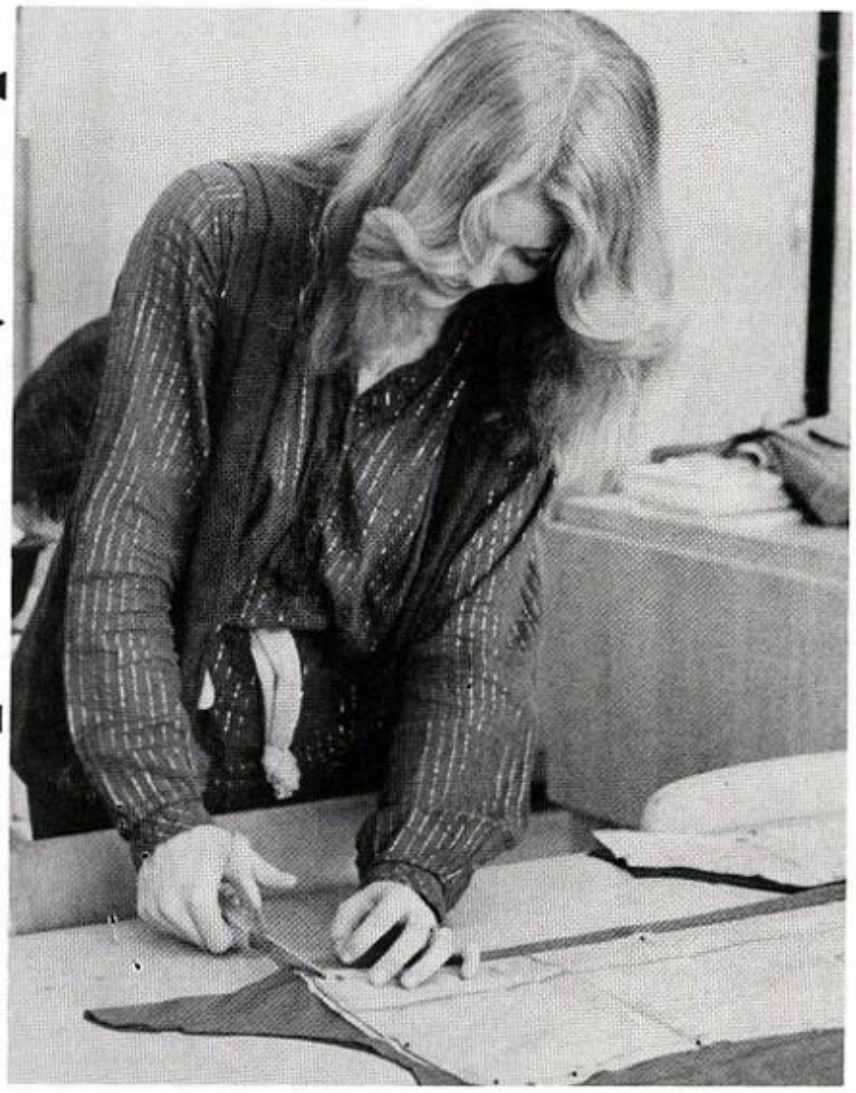


1. Tom Popp and Dave Niccolai work hard at their typing skills.
2. Paul Moeller balances out his accounting.
3. Teri Pavela increases her typing speed.
4. Calculators are a common sight in accounting class.

Home Economics

Home Ec offers students a variety of courses in which they are able to learn skills that will benefit them throughout their lives. Tailoring, cooking, sewing, and consumer ed are just a few of the many courses offered.

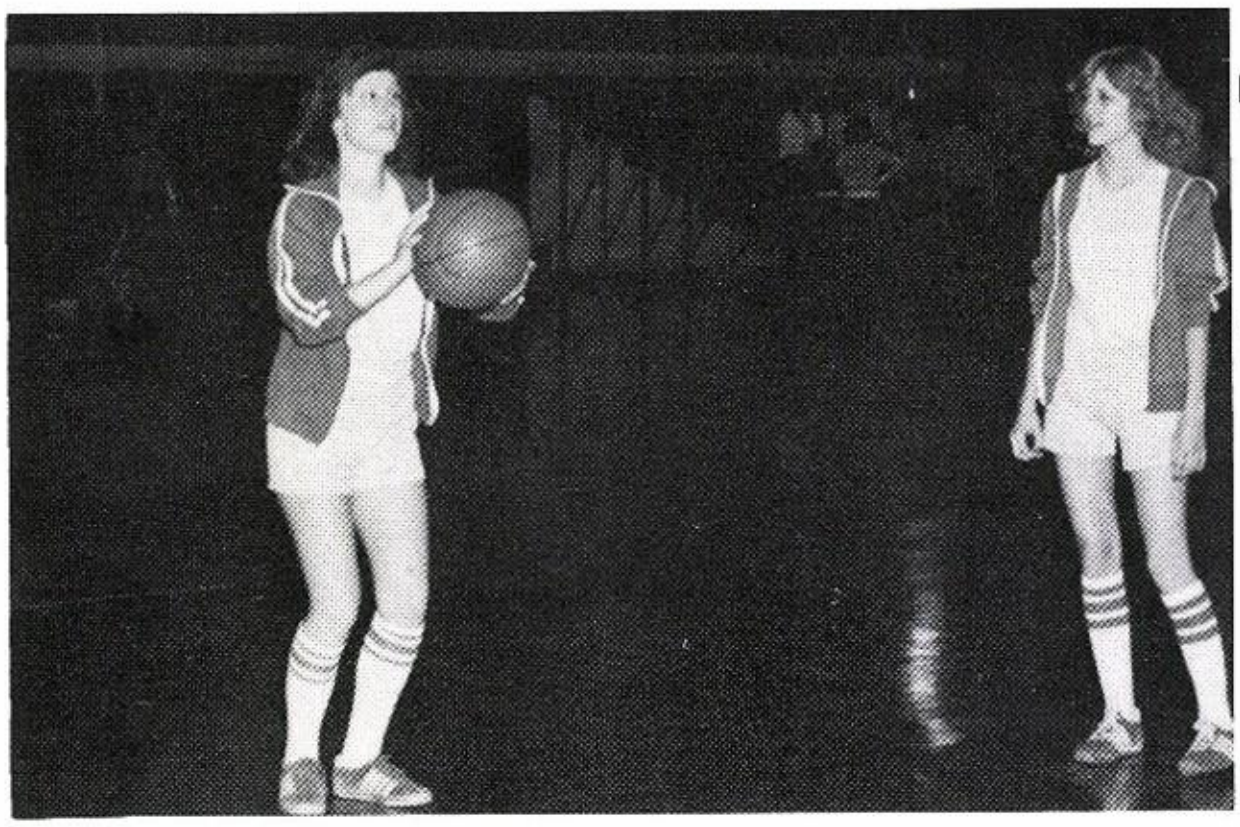


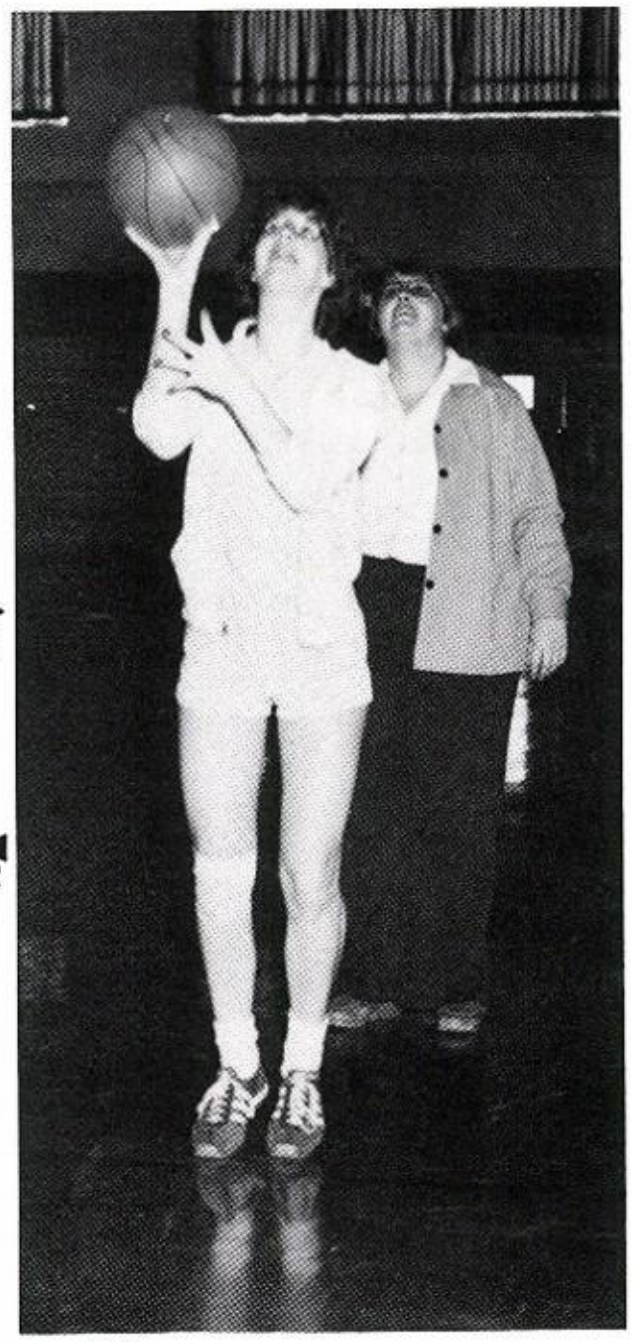


1. Two students work together to perfect their recipe.
2. Denise Risvold works on the shirt she is making.
3. Kathy Farfalla enjoys hemming a skirt.

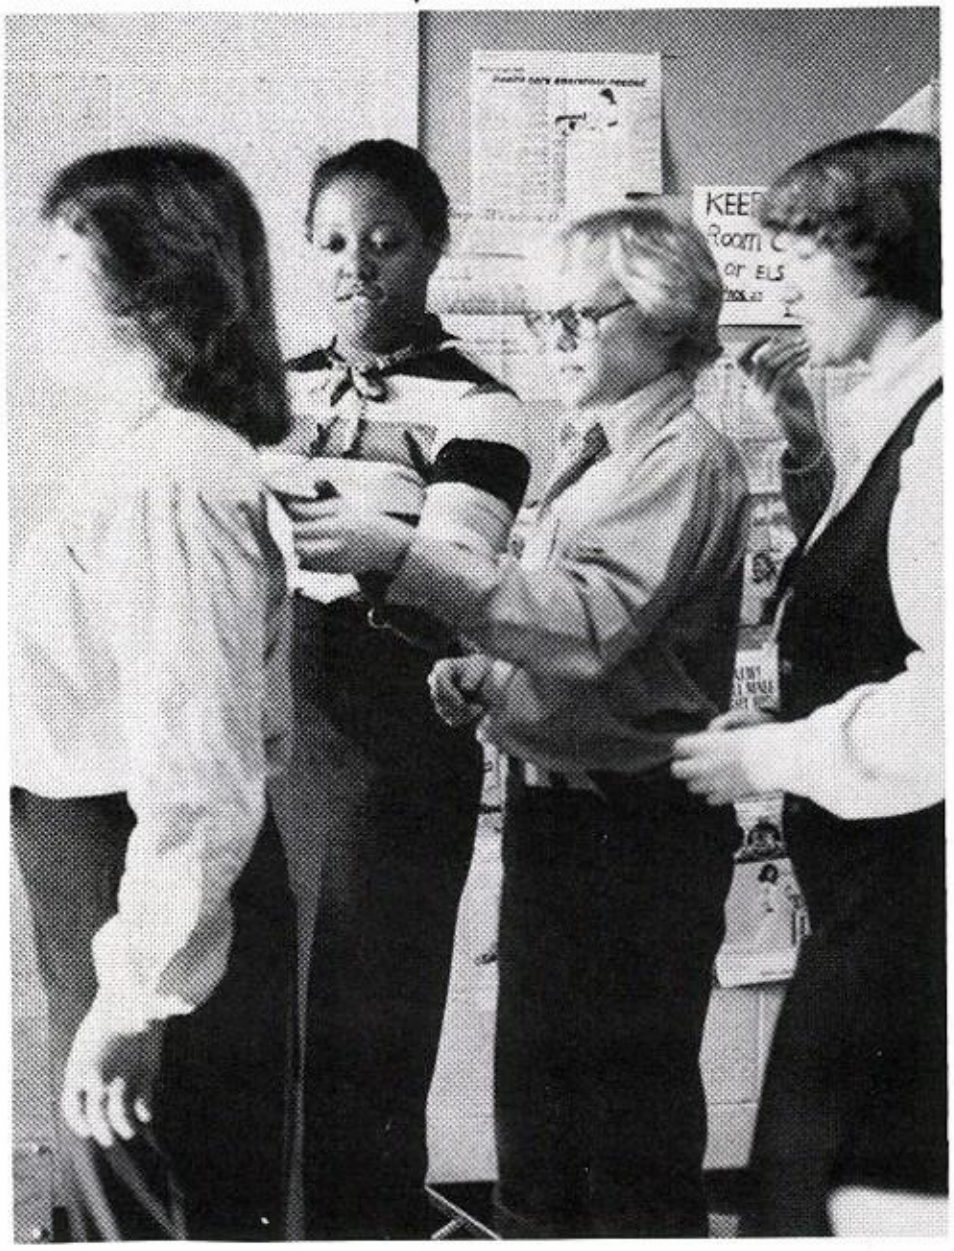
Changes in Phy-Ed

The physical education department has gone co-ed for the first time in the history of St. Joe's. Instructors for the course are Miss Smita, Mr. Matrise, and Mr. Marx. Health class was put in place of gym class for the sophomores.





1. Cindy Jurik watches Kathy Pohlman attempt her shot.
2. Students from health class check their posture.
3. Miss Smits instructs Dawn Jurca on how to shoot a free throw.



Candid Takes

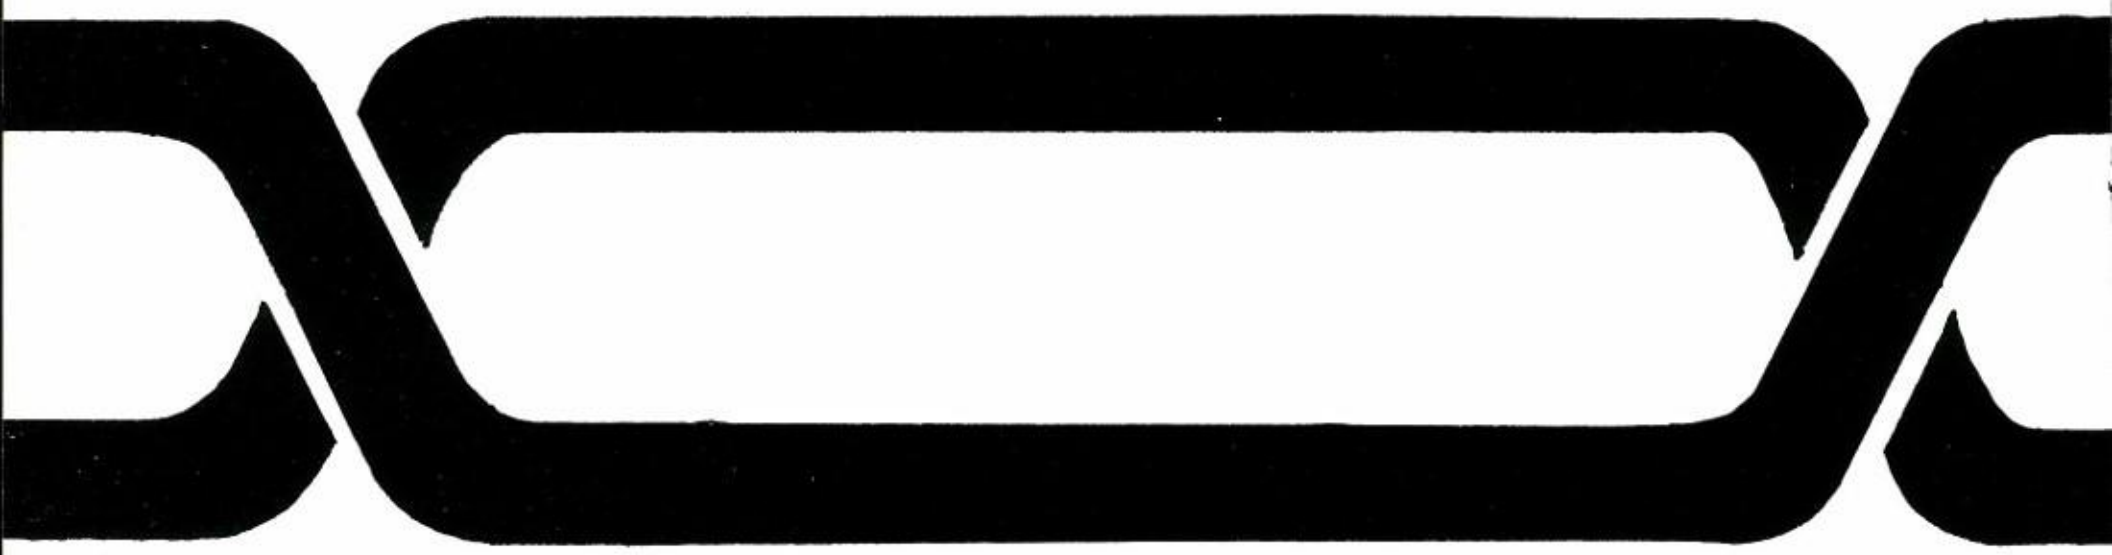
5

1. MaryBeth shows her friend how exciting English class can be.
2. Ray Gram does a little studying between classes.
3. Tom Shows off his new invention for next year's student council.
4. Paul watches the eclipse during P.A.C.E.
5. Another day of class for the seniors.



SPORTS

Cheerleaders Promote Spirit

Cheerleaders help plan pep assemblies, the team masses, and promote school spirit. We would like to compliment all the people that cheered us on this past year. Thirty-four girls participated in this function which is coordinated by Mrs. Karnes.

Frank Matrise Tackles New Position

Head Coach Bob Carbone stepped into retirement, to put an end to his 20 years of coaching at St. Joe's. This gap in the coaching staff was soon filled by new head Coach Frank Matrise and assistant coaches Lee Hlavka and Dennis Mao. Captain of the team, Tim Walkowski and Tom Christ achieved All-Conference. Fred Vernezze was the first running back to give St. Joe's more than a thousand yards in a single season, with 1,035 yards, he also broke the record for total offense with 2,910 yards. Fred was also selected the team's most valuable player. Tim Walkowski had the most unassisted tackles this season. The Lancers 3-6 record held them short of a winning season.

Boy's Track Takes Kenosha County

This year's team was described by the coaching staff as the strongest they ever had. They started off the season after 4 weeks of hard training with a big win at the Kenosha County Indoor. Points were scored in all three categories such as Field Events, Sprints, and Distances. Also, three records were broken; Chuck Soule in the High Hurdles, Jim Beaumier in the Two Mile and the Four Lap Relay. During the season, the Lancers took 4 firsts and 2 seconds at Tri-and-Quad meets. The team broke a school record at every meet. This was thought to be impossible, but they came through. The team was led by Fred Vernezze and leading scorers were Ron Anderson, Gary Wade, and Aaron Grain. Ron Anderson received the Most Valuable Player Award.

WISAA Girls State Champs

For the girls' second year in softball, nobody could ask for anything better than being State Champs of 1979. Yes, that's what the Lancer girls accomplished at Saratoga complex in Waukesha. The Lancers were undefeated throughout the regular season, except for a single loss to Divine Savior. However, going into the State tourney, the girls really proved their talents. They narrowly defeated La Crosse Aquinas, then beat chief rival Racine St. Catherine to win the championship.

Carol Brownlee was chosen all conference pitcher, while Diane Welsch and Debbie Ambruso were chosen all conference infielder and outfielder. Coach Steilein and the returning team members are anticipating another memorable season.

Varsity Baseball

The '79 Lancers, headed by coach Lee Hlavka, started slowly, losing three of their first four games, which harmed their chances to participate in the state tournament. The Lancers, led by senior co-captain Paul Moeller and his pitching ability, won their last 9 out of 13 games, ending up third in the metro conference. The leading hitters were juniors Roger Wotjak and Tim Ronzia.

Student Council

▲1

This year's student council was very active. They put out new vandalism rules and were involved in helping the underclassmen keep enough money in their class treasuries. Other breakthroughs include posting the minutes of the council meetings, and the extensive research in school thefts. These students had to attend many meetings to accomplish the job they did.

Ski Club Member Wins Nationals

Our ski club hit the slopes once again this year and found no problem with the over-abundance of snow. The advisors this year are Mrs. Hubbard and Mr. Heinisch. The Officers are president Don Thomas, Vice-president Tom Werner, Secretary Sue Wadina, and Treasurer Jim Kotz. Patti Werner, a member of the team, placed first in the national ski competition in Winter Park Colorado. Patti was honored at an awards assembly for her outstanding achievement.

J-Club

This year's club put on many fund raising events such as operating a concession stand at all the varsity basketball games. They were supervised by Mr. Snyder and Mr. Marx. Officers for this year's club were Fred Vernezze, Carol Brownlee, Dean Antony, and Brenda Jantzen. This is the first year that the boys' and girls' clubs have been combined. This enabled the club to be stronger and more united.

Sewing Club & Stage Crew

The main project of the sewing club was the making of the costumes for The Miser and for The Man of La Mancha. After many hours of work, Mrs. Steilein and her 8-member club completed their task.

The biggest accomplishment of the stage crew this year was the building of the set for Man of La Mancha. Stage crew is a great asset to all productions here at St. Joe's. They build sets, paint scenery, operate sound, and lighting.

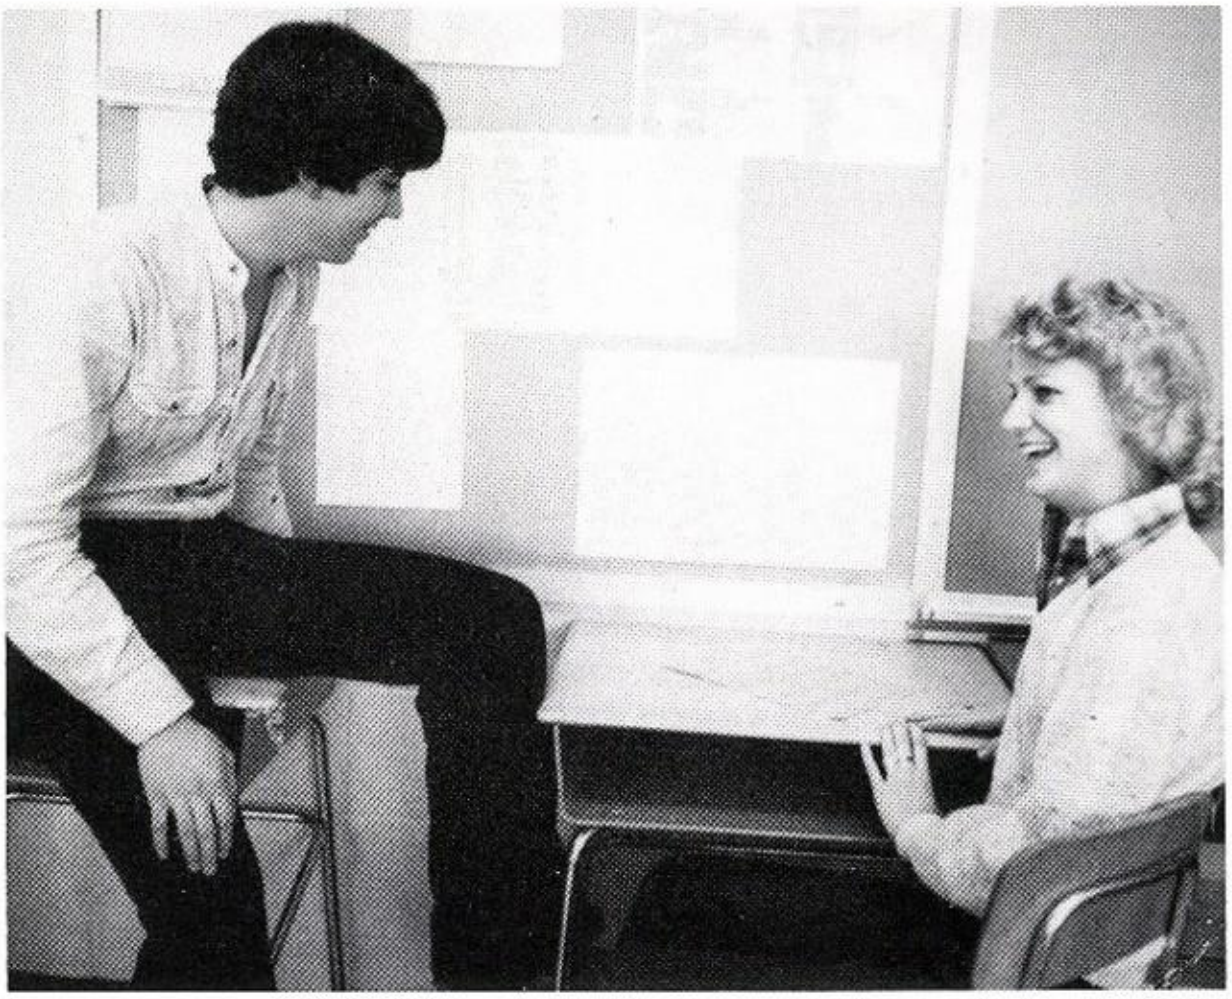
Yearbook

We, the staff of the 1979 Challenge, would like to extend our appreciation to those who made the publication of this yearbook possible. Special thanks goes to Carol Gryczkowski, the patrons, advertisers, and purchasers who financially aided in bringing this book to St. Joseph High School.



1. Ruth Lewis, editor, and assistant editor Frank Perone work together to get the best results.
2. The yearbook staff: Front Row: Denice Risvold, Ruth Lewis, Dawn Becker, Gary Wade, Dave Casey, Tony Montemurro. Back Row: Mrs. Powers, Kevin Padula, Cerise Risvold, Joselyn Davis, Peggy DeZee, Anna Roders, Audrey Fliess, Carol Cunningham, Mark Hammond, Frank Perone, Debbie Rasmussen. Missing: Lori Reindl.
3. Carol Gryczkowski helped the yearbook staff out a great deal this year. THANKS! CAROL!!

Don't Be
Dismayed at Good-byes
A Farewell Is Necessary
Before You Can Meet
Again.
And Meeting
Again After Moments of Lifetimes, Is Certain
For Those Who Are Friends.
